

Codicil to the
Last Will of
Tilghman Hilleary

Whereas I Tilghman Hilleary by my Will dated on the third day of February in year Eighteen hundred and fifty nine and by my Codicil thereto dated on the thirteenth day of August in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty nine, have made the devises and bequests therein mentioned which Will and Codicil I do hereby republish and confirm in every particular and being desirous of making an addition to my said Will, do make this as a Codicil to my said last Will - I do Will and direct that the grave yard on my home farm called and known as Mount Pleasant shall be reserved and not sold by my Executor under the provisions of this my Will with a right of ingress to and egress from said grave yard, to be kept as a place of interment of my family and of those of my blood relations - and I do authorize and empower my Executor and Executrix or the survivor of them to have the said grave yard enclosed with a substantial stone wall, if the same be not done in my life time, and if such wall be erected by my Executrix or Executor - I do charge the expenses of such erection to be paid out of my estate.

In testimony whereof I Tilghman Hilleary have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirty first day of May in the year Eighteen hundred and Sixty six.

Tilghm. Hilleary (SEAL)

Signed, seal, published and declared by Tilghman Hilleary the within named Testator in our presence, as and for a Codicil to his last Will and Testament who at this request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have signed our names as Witnesses hereto -

Wm. J. Ross
